

April is Water Awareness Month in Sedona

Sponsored by Sedona WaterWise Alliance

April 2 2pm – 5pm	Local Foods of Arizona – featuring Gardens for Humanity at New Frontiers – FREE
April 3 4pm – 5pm	Water Musing & Muses - Poets' Corner at the Sedona Arts Center in Uptown – First Friday event – FREE
April 3 7pm – 9pm	“Water – Part II” – award-winning documentary about the metaphysical properties of water – Creative Life Center – www.CreativeLifeCenter.com - $5.00 Donation
April 4 8:30am - 3pm	KSB Native Plant Workshop – What to Know, What to Grow – Sedona Red Rock High School – lots of great presentations on local plants, gardening secrets, rainwater harvesting and more – www.keeppedonabeautiful.org - $10 members, $15 non-members
April 10 6pm – 8pm	Storytelling – “Gifts from the Earth” at Well Read Coyote – Join local creative minds who share their passion & memories of water and growing gardens – FREE 928 282 2284
April 11 6:30pm – 9pm	Conserve Water – Grow Food Forum & Expo at Sedona Public Library hosted by Sustainable Arizona with presenters and exhibits on growing in dry lands, farmers’ market, local wines, CSA, natural foods to sample and lots more – FREE – 928 282 2690
April 16 6:30 – 8:30pm	Flow – The Film at the Sedona Public Library – See the impacts of corporate control of water resources – Winner Best Documentary 2009 Film Festival – FREE – 928 282 2690
April 17-25 TBA	Verde River Days along the Verde River featuring float trips, hikes, forums & action to help preserve our river – joellers@biologicaldiversity.org
April 18 9am – 1pm	Healthy Living/Healthy Earth – Earth Day Celebration at Posse Grounds – City of Sedona – featuring booths, speakers and music – FREE – 928 203 5057
April 18 10am – 1pm	“Water – Who Owns It & Where Does It Go?” at Yavapai College in Clarkdale hosted by the League of Women Voters featuring Tom O’Halloran, Dick Ellis, SRP and others in a dynamic discussion on this important topic – FREE – 928 282 2958
April 18 6:30pm – 9pm	“Climate Change/Energy/Water – Our Future” at Sedona Library hosted by Sustainable Arizona. Shaun McKinnon, AZ Republic and experts on energy & water exhibits on renewable energy, solar, electric vehicles & conservation systems – FREE – 928 282 2690
April 19 3pm – 5pm	“Circle of Our Mother Earth” at the Verde Valley Presbyterian Church in Cottonwood - Cynthia Stromm & friends present songs, dance & poetry celebrating water and other gifts from the Earth – Donations to provide micro-loans to poor women in Sonora, Mexico
April 19 3pm – 5pm	“The Water Sentinels” at the Sedona Community Center (2615 Melody Lane) Sierra Club, presents films & discussion about preserving Oak Creek & our watershed – FREE www.arizona.sierraclub.org/sedona/events.html
April 22 12pm – 6pm	Earth Day Celebration at New Frontiers – Organic Foods, Samples, Green Cleaning Products, Music, Demos and more – FREE
April 23 9am – 12pm	Sedona Water Advisory Committee Event for the Children of West Sedona School – a special educational program for 4 th graders and their teachers
April 23-26 Various	Verde Valley Birding & Nature Festival – Dead Horse State Park, Cottonwood - www.birdyverde.org
April 26 5pm – 9pm	“Water to Wine” at the Old Town Center for the Arts in Cottonwood – an evening with wonderful Verde Valley Wines, local foods and music from William Eaton & Friends – (928) 634-0940 or jneville@sustainablearizona.org for information - $12 for tastings

These events are being staged through the Sedona WaterWise Alliance, a collaboration of organizations: Sedona Women, Sustainable Arizona, Keep Sedona Beautiful, Sedona Public Library, Center for Biological Diversity, Sedona Schools, Verde Valley Birding, League of Women Voters, Arizona Water Company, Gardens for Humanity, New Frontiers, Sedona Recycles, Verde Earthworks and others with support from the City of Sedona, Pink Jeeps and a grant from the Sedona Community Foundation.