City Seeks Two Applicants for Planning and Zoning Commission

The City of Sedona is currently seeking to fill two positions on the Planning and Zoning Commission, because two current members' terms will be expiring. The term of service for these vacancies is three years beginning November 1, 2016 and ending October 31, 2019, or until a successor is appointed.

The Planning and Zoning Commission is a voluntary body of seven citizens appointed by City Council whose duties include making recommendations to the City Council on Community Plan updates, Land Development Code amendments, property zone changes and subdivision applications. In addition, the Commission makes the final decision on conditional use permits and development review applications.

"The Commission plays a critical role in the City's planning process as it serves as the Council's advisor on land use, growth, and development issues. We value our volunteers as they provide support, expertise, time, experience, and energy assisting with City functions," said Audree Juhlin, city of Sedona Community Development Director.

The Planning and Zoning Commission is one of three City Commissions and Boards required by the State of Arizona. Interested applicants must be current residents in the Sedona city limits and should have interest, experience or knowledge in land use or related fields like architecture, construction, landscaping and planning.

Applications for the Planning and Zoning Commission are available at the City Clerk's Office at Sedona's City Hall located at 102 Roadrunner Drive, or by calling 928-282-3113. The deadline to submit applications is Thursday, August 25, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. Please return completed applications to the City Clerk's Office.
